

MESSAGE GIVEN IN THE REGENCY OF LEO YEAR 47 DE AKUARIO

Every day the pain of the childbirth will be intensified until the final moment of that new one to be born to the new world abandoning the old lands

Each groan is translated in hurricanes, each it cries it amplifies the waters that descend with devastating impulse amplifying that pain likewise until the supreme instant of the childbirth. It has broken up the source of the cosmic uterus in association with the earth and big floods happens forcing them to look for sure place.

Big epidemics happens and the only vaccine is the love as if, to its Mother, toward the other ones and to the nature.

The existent systems in the earth, you call financial, religious, political and social they are looked like to the residuals to waters , will see it of the road after the rain, these, when being sun in the highest they feel the igneous force and they dry off the scent characteristic of the ugliness. Apply this with the association of your interior structure that is gestated in the internal uterus, the old man is dissolved and the being of light full with conscience comes.

The humanity is called to participate of the changes to the new world or to apply the free will and to stay as an afraid spectator behind the grills of the ignorance, the fear, and the materialism, taking care that nobody abducts him his only patrimony in the moment of the childbirth.

They can fly and very high or keep as a bird with a trunk bundle to their paws.

Maintain present the promise that we made before of coming to this valley.

Now it is the mystic instant of lighting the flame of your cardiacs to illuminat the way to those who come behind or parallel with you in the darkness of the cosmic night, so that they step in the step that should be and be not that they slide because of the darkness.
