

MESSAGES MAY 23 2009

These messages were given by de confederations of WOOLAGNU, YEMEN AND FARUHNA. Try to read them in relaxation of body and mind so that you can comprehend the essentiality, May the Christ be with you.

1) MARS

Children of the descending fifth sun incline your ears, you are preparing the party without having sewed the dresses, in the current form there will be mourning in the lunar party, and you retired your shoulders from under the load without before presenting the successor. The western ray was made feel and you remained serene, but with the sound of the thunder you clamored to the highest, you follow the advice of the exterior, of the weak ones, orphans, silent, blind, deaf and without skin.

2) SUN

The dry leaves are in the streets ignoring that at the turn of the corner will appear coming from the field the vortex, the fallen leaves arm itself to face the wind, the mount is ennobled and resonates when discovering the fire, the hurricane goes to the south and the embarrassed faces have not discovered it , the swallows even find places for their nests, the fish don't fear neither the winds neither the rains but they feel the calamity of the birds, these they transmit it to the trees impregnating their fruits for embodying them in the man , the chain continues this way to make you participate as a link.

3) MERKURY

When you were visited you were sowing olives in the atrium of the church, those of the common and the parishioners thwarted them telling them " Go better to the river or the sea " to some is convenient to go to the mounts and mountains, in them the widows and outsiders live in silence, they think aloud and they imagine in the physical world to guide those that touches the eye and don't see, they blow the ear and they are not able to listen.

4) JUPITER

Do not harden your heart, have patience to capture all that comes from the highest, emit songs now that the auspice has arrived, walk with the integrate heart amid your house discarding the injustice and the actions of those deviated that defame its fellow men together with the Kingdoms, in the morning they will be warned , to the half-day the trial, and in the twilight the sentence of those that hide their faces disappearing its days, as the fume of the oven of which hope to take out the bread to mix them with the tears product of the ardor in the eyes.

5) SATURN

The current generation ages the same as their dresses and doesn't remember that should rejuvenate as the eagle, your life is like to grass of their days, it flourishes as the flower of the field depending on the fervor of the wind, this is their representation like a messenger, the ray their justice, as well the fire their ministers, it is the water of the streams those that mitigate the thirst of the mountain asses, the birds on the branches of the north of the tree emit their songs like instruction that the stones are not for burrows of rabbits, everything in their place ,the moons for each time, the sun for each east, the owl to guide the night, each living being has his existential foundation, now each one of you should recognize the position before the human and divine nature, the other ones make part of us and us of the other ones, time in present.